Volunteer Application

Volunteers must be at least 18 years of age and complete an orientation session to volunteer at WRERR.

Volunteers at the WRERR can help in many different aspects. Cleaning stalls and the barn will be something that always needs to be done. There will also be opportunities for fund raising, grooming, building, and outreach.

Have you ever volunteered at another rescue or humane society?
Do you have any pets? If so, what kind?
Describe any experience you've had working with horses and other animals.
Certain volunteer activities require walking, mobility, bending, and lifting of heavy objects. Do you have any health limitations?
Are you allergic or uncomfortable around certain animals? If so, what animals?
What brought you to the Horse Rescue?

Release of Liability

Please read carefully, your signature of acknowledgement is required.

The undersigned volunteer will be performing services from time to time on behalf of Winding Road Equine Rescue and Retirement, Inc. (The "Horse Rescue").

The volunteer agrees with the Horse Rescue that he/she will not hold the Horse Rescue or any of its directors, officers, or staff liable for any injuries or related medical or other costs or expenses incurred by the Volunteer in connection with the services performed by the volunteer on behalf of the Horse Rescue. This release of liability shall apply even if the Horse Rescue or the directors, officers, or staff of the Horse Rescue have acted negligently or have negligently failed to act. This release of liability shall not apply, however, to the extent that the Horse Rescue or the directors, officers, or staff of the Horse Rescue have acted intentionally or with willful want or disregard for the volunteer's safety.

The volunteer acknowledges the inherent risks of working with animals or in the vicinity of animals, and the volunteer accepts these risks.

If the volunteer is a minor, the volunteer's parent or legal guardian agrees for himself/herself and the volunteer that they both release the Horse Rescue and its directors, officers, and staff, as stated above. If the volunteer is married, the volunteer's spouse releases the Horse Rescue and its directors, officers, and staff from all causes of action based upon or relating to the loss of consortium in connection with any injuries for which the volunteer has released the Horse Rescue and its directors, officers, and staff.
